AFDCS Annual Cachetmakers Contest

Top cachet of 2022 by Dave Bennett

In the American First Day Cover Society's annual cachetmakers contest, the best FDC designs from the previous year are chosen in multiple categories.

The contest to select the best cachets for each year begins in January of the following year; the deadline for entries is usually April 15. Those entering covers must be members of the AFDCS. (Youth cachetmakers do not need to be AFDCS members or related to AFDCS members.)

The entry fee for adults is $5 if the cover is donated to the Society, or $10 if the cachetmaker wants the FDC returned.

A cachet is the artwork on a first day cover envelope that complements the new stamp. These designs can be as simple as a few words of text or as complicated as an oil painting or mosaic. Typically, the media used in the entries to an AFDCS cachetmakers contest range from colored pencils and markers to acrylic paints, woodblock prints and movable parts.

The categories include hand-painted with no mass production of any kind; hand-colored; computer-produced; one-color; event (not first-day) covers; Rookie of the Year and two age groups for young cachetmakers. There is also the top award, which cites what the three judges feel is the best cachet submitted in the entire contest, regardless of the media used.

About the AFDCS

The American First Day Cover Society (AFDCS) is a volunteer non-profit and non-commercial organization serving the needs of First Day Cover collectors, cachetmakers, and dealers. Founded in 1955, the society has a membership of over 1,100 active first day cover collectors, including many who design and manufacture their own cacheted FDCs.

The AFDCS holds a national annual convention, Americover, maintains a historical archive, and publishes a journal, First Days, full of news and education every two months (six issues a year). There are many benefits to membership, including our Member Mentor Program, Tax Deductions, Fund Raising Auction and discounts on our many informative Handbooks. This is all available to you for the very modest membership dues of $35 per year ($100 per year for non-US residents; $24 per year for anyone worldwide for an online only membership), $20 for age 17 and under (U.S. addresses). Come join us, or send in the application form at end of this document.

First Days

First Days is the award-winning publication of the American First Day Cover Society. Published in full color six times per year, the magazine is filled with articles and features covering all areas of FDC collecting to enlighten beginners to advanced readers.

AFDCS Court of Honor Series

The AFDCS Court of Honor was created to honor cachet artists who have, over the years, contributed so much to the hobby through the beauty of their art. A different artist is selected each year.

The series uses the Christmas theme, for which stamps are issued every year, so that the cachets can be completed in advance. The artists are given complete freedom to develop their designs. The AFDCS then reproduces the art on a high-quality envelope. The series began in 1981 and the first artist honored was Ralph Dyer. There has been a new Court of Honor FDC every year since then.

AFDCS Directory of Current Cachetmakers

January 2024 Edition

Compiled & Updated by John H. White, LM269

Welcome to the latest edition of the American First Day Cover Society's Directory of Current Cachetmakers. Refer to Page 22 for a summary of changes in this edition.

Cachetmakers are listed both by their trade names and their real names, their regular mail address, website, email address, and primary telephone number. The listings also indicate how often a cachet line is produced, what its first FDC was, for what countries and what topics cacheted FDCs are made and the type of cover (Standard or other size envelope, postal card, Maximum card, etc.). It is up to the Cachetmaker to ensure their brand is described completely and accurately. The AFDCS reserves the right to remove content as it deems necessary.

If you are a Cachetmaker not listed in the directory and wish to be included in future editions, please submit your information as you would like published via the following link:

AFDCS FUNDRAISING AUCTIONS

We Need Long Storage Boxes!

The long-time producer of FDC storage boxes, Pittsburg File & Box, no longer produces the items, and we have not been successful finding anything similar.

Several have suggested to use the photograph boxes available from “dollar” stores. While they do hold covers securely, they hold less than half as much in a long box, and have top-lids that must be removed to access the covers. Not the ideal choice.

Is there anyone that has the manufacturing knowledge to replicate the long boxes, and would be willing to make them for cover collectors? If so, please contact me for the specifications.

Failing that, does anyone have long boxes that are no longer being used, and would donate them to the AFDCS? A letter acknowledging the donation will be returned that can be used to claim as a possible tax deduction to a non-profit organization, which the AFDCS is.
